South Metro Living Photo Contest

The River Heights Chamber of Commerce is pleased to announce a brand new publication called the South Metro Living Guide which will combine our Member Business Directory and our Community Resource Guide to be used as a resource tool and promote the south metro area. It will include various facets of the community such as living, working, relaxing and doing business in South St. Paul and Inver Grove Heights. The guide is intended to provide an impressive "first look" at the community. The publication is targeted for distribution this fall.

This is where you come in...the River Heights Chamber knows there are many talented photographers and writers out there (professionally or just for a fun hobby) and we'd like you to share your photos and information regarding the business community, local city government, schools, organizations, places of worship or any part of the facets noted above in our area with us! Photos will be displayed and voted on through the Chamber's social media and website and cash prizes will be awarded to contest winners in each category listed above.

Please submit your high resolution photos and information to nicole@riverheights.com or call 651.451.2266 by August 19, 2011. * All images must be 300 dpi @ 100% and submitted in a jpg, gif, tif or pdf format.

*Disclaimer: Any photos/content submitted for the contest will be used at the discretion of the River Heights Chamber of Commerce and become property of the River Heights Chamber of Commerce for its use in their publications and communications (either printed in publications or used in online social media/marketing efforts) for promoting the south metro area. All photos should note a caption (example: name of a park or name of event) and the photographers name so it can be mentioned with the photo(s) in the publication.

Jennifer Gale, president of the River Heights Chamber of Commerce and Progress Plus, added, "We believe in keeping our communities a great place to live, work and play. One of our top priorities is to remind people in the community to shop local for their goods and services to sustain our thriving business community. Here at the River Heights Chamber, we provide the resources to do so and welcome you to stop on by!"

We encourage you to support your local business community!
